- (4) employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the CIO. The CIO may employ or remunerate a Charity Trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to Charity Trustees and Connected Persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- (5) deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

5. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A Charity Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the CIO.

- (b) A Charity Trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of the CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member of the CIO. Nevertheless a Member who is not also a Charity Trustee may receive:
 - (a) a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a Charity Trustee or Connected Person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to Charity Trustees and Connected Persons

(1) General provisions and Conflict Management

No Charity Trustee or Connected Person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to Members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission ("the Commission") has been obtained. In this clause, a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting Trustees' or Connected Persons' benefits

- (a) A Charity Trustee or Connected Person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO provided that the benefit is available generally to the beneficiaries of the CIO.
- (b) A Charity Trustee or Connected Person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a Charity Trustee or Connected Person may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the Charity Trustee or Connected Person.

- (d) A Charity Trustee or Connected Person may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A Charity Trustee or Connected Person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as Members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The CIO and its Charity Trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the CIO and the Charity Trustee or Connected Person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - (c) The other Charity Trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Charity Trustee or Connected Person. In reaching that decision the Charity Trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a Charity Trustee or Connected Person against the disadvantages of doing so.
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO.
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Charity Trustees is present at the meeting.
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Charity Trustees in the minute book.
 - (g) A majority of the Charity Trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.
- (4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:
- (a) “the CIO” includes any company in which the CIO:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

- (b) “Connected Person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause 30 (Interpretation).

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A Charity Trustee must:

- (1) declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the CIO or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the CIO which has not previously been declared; and,
- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Charity Trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any Charity Trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the Charity Trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of Members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up

If the CIO is wound up, the Members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9. Membership of the CIO

(1) Admission of new Members

(a) Eligibility

Membership of the CIO is open to a Regular User and to the Parish Council and Parochial Church Council (as such expressions are defined in clause 30), and who, by applying for Membership, has indicated his, her or its agreement to become a Member and acceptance of the duty of Members set out in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

A Member may be an individual or an individual representing an organisation which is or intends to be a Regular User or an individual appointed by the Parish Council or the Parochial Church Council. The initial Members of the CIO are set out in clause 30 – “The Initial Members”

(b) Admission procedure

The Charity Trustees:

- (i) may require applications for Membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;
- (ii) may, if an organisation wishes to appoint an individual person to become a Member, require that organisation to produce evidence that it is (or will become) a Regular user;
- (iii) shall permit the Parish Council and Parochial Church Council, as of right, to appoint an individual to be a Member by notice of appointment in writing to the Charity Trustees provided that such appointee agrees to abide by the duty of Members set out in sub-clause 3 below;

- (iv) shall, if they approve an application for Membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
- (v) may refuse an application for Membership if the applicant has not confirmed its intention to become a Regular User or if the Charity Trustees believe that it is in the best interests of the CIO for them to do so;
- (iv) shall, if they decide to refuse an application for Membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- (v) shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for Membership shall be final.

(2) Transfer of Membership

Membership of the CIO cannot be transferred to anyone else except in the case of an individual representing an organisation, whose Membership may be transferred by the organisation to a new representative. Such transfer of Membership does not take effect until the CIO has received written notification of the transfer.

(3) Duty of Members

It is the duty of each Member of the CIO to exercise his or her powers as a Member of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

(4) Termination of Membership

- (a) Membership of the CIO comes to an end if:
 - (i) the Member dies, or, in the case of an organisation (or the representative of an organisation) that organisation ceases to exist; or
 - (ii) the Member sends a notice of resignation to the Charity Trustees; or
 - (iii) the Member (or the organisation which they represent) has not been a Regular User and the Charity Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO to terminate the Membership of that Member (and, thereby, the organisation which they represent); or
 - (iv) any sum of money owed by the Member to the CIO is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
 - (iv) the Charity Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the Member in question should be removed from Membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

- (b) Before the Charity Trustees take any decision to remove someone from Membership of the CIO they must:
 - (i) inform the Member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from Membership;
 - (ii) give the Member at least 21 clear days' notice in which to make representations to the Charity Trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from Membership;
 - (iii) at a duly constituted meeting of the Charity Trustees, consider whether or not the Member should be removed from Membership;
 - (iv) consider at that meeting any representations which the Member makes as to why the Member should not be removed; and
 - (v) notify the Member in writing of the decision whether the Member has or has not been removed from Membership.

(5) Membership fees

The CIO may require Members to pay reasonable membership fees to the CIO.

(6) Informal or Associate (non-voting) Membership

- (a) The CIO shall have a class of non-voting Member referred to in this constitution as Associate Members. All beneficiaries and inhabitants of Grundisburgh and the neighbourhood of the CIO are Associate Members and shall be entitled to attend, but not vote at, any AGM or other meeting of the Members.
- (b) The Charity Trustees may create other classes of non-voting Membership, and may determine the rights and obligations of any such Members (including payment of Membership fees), and the conditions for admission to, and termination of Membership of any such class of Members.
- (b) Other references in this constitution to "Members" and "Membership" do not apply to Associate Members or other non-voting Members, and non-voting Members do not qualify as Members for any purpose under the Charities Acts, General Regulations or Dissolution Regulations.

10. Members' decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (3) of this clause, decisions of the Members of the CIO must be taken by vote at a General Meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause.

(2) Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause, any decision of the Members of the CIO may be taken by means of a resolution at a General Meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting including votes cast by proxy votes.

(3) Decisions that must be taken in a particular way

- (a) Any decision to remove a Charity Trustee must be taken in accordance with clause 15(2).
- (b) Any decision to amend this constitution must be taken in accordance with clause 28 of this constitution (Amendment of Constitution).
- (c) Any decision to wind up or dissolve the CIO must be taken in accordance with clause 29 of this constitution (Voluntary winding up or dissolution). Any decision to amalgamate or transfer the undertaking of the CIO to one or more other CIOs must be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011.

11. General Meetings of Members

(1) Types of General Meeting

There must be an annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Members of the CIO. The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of the CIO, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the Charity Trustees' annual report, and must elect Charity Trustees as required under clause 13.

Other General Meetings of the Members of the CIO may be held at any time.

All General Meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

(2) Calling General Meetings

- (a) The Charity Trustees:
 - (i) must call the Annual General Meeting of the Members of the CIO in accordance with sub-clause (1) of this clause, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
 - (ii) may call any other General Meeting of the Members at any time.
- (b) The Charity Trustees must, within 21 days, call a General Meeting of the Members of the CIO if:
 - (i) they receive a request to do so from at least 25% of the Members of the CIO; and
 - (ii) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the Member(s) making the request.
- (c) If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any General Meeting of the Members of the CIO for more than 12 months, then sub-clause (b)(i) of this clause shall have effect as if 5% were substituted for 25%.

- (d) Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- (e) A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- (f) Any General Meeting called by the Charity Trustees at the request of the Members of the CIO must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.
- (g) If the Charity Trustees fail to comply with this obligation to call a General Meeting at the request of its Members, then the Members who requested the meeting may themselves call a General Meeting.
- (h) A General Meeting called in this way must be held not more than 3 months after the date when the Members first requested the meeting.
- (i) The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the Members calling a General Meeting by reason of the failure of the Charity Trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Charity Trustees who were responsible for such failure.

(3) Notice of General Meetings

- (a) The Charity Trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant Members of the CIO, must give at least 14 clear days' notice of any General Meeting to all of the Members, and to any Charity Trustee of the CIO who is not a Member. In the case where a Member is the appointed representative of an organisation, the notice should be sent to the appointed representative rather than the organisation.
- (b) Public notice shall be given a reasonable period ahead of a meeting of Members to Associate Members by signage, social media or such other means as are likely to bring the meeting to the attention of inhabitants of Grundisburgh.
- (b) If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all Members of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause (3) (a) of this clause have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- (c) The notice of any General Meeting to be given to Members (not Associate Members) must:
 - (i) state the time and date of the meeting;
 - (ii) give the address at which the meeting is to take place;

- (iii) give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - (iv) if a proposal to alter the constitution of the CIO is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration;
 - (v) include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the CIO's website.
- (d) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 24 hours after it was posted or sent.
- (e) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a Member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.

(4) Chairing of General Meetings

The person nominated as chair by the Charity Trustees under clause 19(2) (Chairing of meetings), shall, if present at the General Meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. Subject to that, the Members of the CIO who are present at a General Meeting shall elect a chairman to preside at the meeting.

(5) Quorum at General Meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any General Meeting of the Members of the CIO unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
- (b) Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for General Meetings shall be the greater of 10% of the Members or three Members. For the avoidance of doubt, Associate Members are not to be counted as present for the purposes of assessing whether a quorum is, or remains, present.
- (c) If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the Members and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.
- (d) If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the CIO's Members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.

- (e) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the Member or Members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- (f) If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the Members, the meeting must be adjourned.

(6) Voting at General Meetings

- (a) Any decision other than one falling within clause 10(3) (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy votes). Every Member has one vote. A Charity Trustee does not have a vote unless also a Member.
- (b) A Member may appoint a person as a proxy to exercise that Member's rights to attend, speak and vote at a meeting of Members. The Member appointing the proxy shall give notice in writing to the CIO before the time fixed for the meeting confirming the name of the proxy. A proxy may vote as the proxy sees fit unless directed by the Member appointing the proxy how the proxy is to vote. If such a direction has been given to the proxy, the notice of appointment of the proxy sent to the CIO shall state the direction so given on any resolution being proposed at the meeting. A proxy appointment shall only last for the meeting in respect of which it is given, or any adjourned meeting of it, and shall thereafter expire.
- (c) In the event of an equality of votes, the chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote. If the chair of the meeting is a Member and has voted, the chair shall still be entitled to cast a second vote as a casting vote.
- (d) Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.
- (f) Although Associate Members are not entitled to a formal vote at any meeting of Members, nothing in this constitution shall prevent the chair of a meeting seeking a show of hands from Associate Members attending the meeting for the purpose of gauging public opinion but such a vote shall not be binding upon the CIO and shall be an indicative vote only.

(7) Representation of organisations

An organisation that has been approved as a Regular User or the Parish Council or the Parochial Church Council must appoint an individual as its representative, who will be recorded as the Member in the CIO's register of Members, together with a note of the organisation which has appointed them.

(8) Adjournment of meetings

The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place.

No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

12. Charity Trustees

(1) Functions and duties of Charity Trustees

The Charity Trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. It is the duty of each Charity Trustee:

- (a) to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions as a trustee of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO; and
- (b) to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:
 - (i) any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having; and

(2) Eligibility for trusteeship

- (a) Every Charity Trustee must be a natural person (i.e. not a company or other type of entity).

(3) Number of Charity Trustees

- (a) There must be at least three Charity Trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the Charity Trustees, or appoint a new Charity Trustee.
- (b) The maximum number of Charity Trustees is 10. The Charity Trustees may not appoint any Charity Trustee if as a result the number of Charity Trustees would exceed the maximum

(4) First Charity Trustees

The first Charity Trustees of the CIO are:

Mr Bryan Laxton;

Mrs Judith Bignell Pepper.

13. Appointment of Charity Trustees

- (1) At every Annual General Meeting of the Members of the CIO, one-third of the Charity Trustees shall retire from office. If the number of Charity Trustees is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office, but if there is only one Charity Trustee, he or she shall retire;
- (2) The Charity Trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment. If any trustees were last appointed or reappointed on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot;

- (4) The Members or the Charity Trustees may at any time decide to appoint a new Charity Trustee, whether in place of a Charity Trustee who has retired or been removed in accordance with clause 15 (Retirement and removal of Charity Trustees), or as an additional Charity Trustee, provided that the limit specified in clause 12(3) on the number of Charity Trustees would not as a result be exceeded;
- (5) A person so appointed by the Members of the CIO shall retire in accordance with the provisions of sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause. A person so appointed by the Charity Trustees shall retire at the conclusion of the next annual General Meeting after the date of his or her appointment, and shall not be counted for the purpose of determining which of the Charity Trustees is to retire by rotation at that meeting.
- (6) A Member is eligible to be a Charity Trustee and shall be entitled to vote for their appointment or re-appointment at any meeting of Members at which such a resolution is proposed.

14. Information for new Charity Trustees

- (b) a copy of the CIO's latest trustees' annual report and statement of accounts.

15. Retirement and removal of Charity Trustees

 - (f) is disqualified from acting as a Charity Trustee by virtue of sections 178-180 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).
- (2) A Charity Trustee shall be removed from office if a resolution to remove that trustee is proposed at a General Meeting of the Members called for that purpose and properly convened in accordance with clause 11, and the resolution is passed by a two-thirds majority of votes cast at the meeting (including votes validly cast by proxy).
- (3) A resolution to remove a Charity Trustee in accordance with this clause shall not take effect unless the individual concerned has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to the Members of the CIO.

16. Reappointment of Charity Trustees

Any person who retires as a Charity Trustee by rotation or by giving notice to the CIO is eligible for reappointment.

17. Taking of decisions by Charity Trustees

Any decision may be taken either:

- at a meeting of the Charity Trustees (a "Trustee Meeting"); or
- by resolution in writing or electronic form agreed by all of the Charity Trustees, which may comprise either a single document or several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to which the majority of all of the Charity Trustees has signified their agreement. Such a resolution shall be effective provided that

- a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent, at or as near as reasonably practicable to the same time, to all of the Charity Trustees; and
- the majority of all of the Charity Trustees has signified agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which has or have been authenticated by their signature, by a statement of their identity accompanying the document or documents, or in such other manner as the Charity Trustees have previously resolved.

18. Delegation by Charity Trustees

- (1) The Charity Trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee or committees, and, if they do, they must determine the terms and conditions on which the delegation is made. The Charity Trustees may at any time alter those terms and conditions, or revoke the delegation.
- (2) This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the Charity Trustees, but is subject to the following requirements:
 - (a) a committee may consist of two or more persons, but at least one Member of each committee must be a Charity Trustee;
 - (b) the acts and proceedings of any committee must be brought to the attention of the Charity Trustees as a whole as soon as is reasonably practicable; and
 - (c) the Charity Trustees shall from time to time review the arrangements which they have made for the delegation of their powers.

19. Meetings and proceedings of Charity Trustees

(1) Calling meetings

- (a) Any Charity Trustee may call a meeting of the Charity Trustees.
- (b) Subject to that, the Charity Trustees shall decide how their meetings are to be called, and what notice is required.

(2) Chairing of meetings

The Charity Trustees may appoint one of their number to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment. If no-one has been so appointed, or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within 10 minutes after the time of the meeting, the Charity Trustees present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.

(3) Procedure at meetings

- (a) No decision shall be taken at a meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the decision is taken. The quorum is two Charity Trustees, or the number nearest to one third of the total number of Charity Trustees, whichever is greater or such larger number as the Charity Trustees may decide from time to time. A Charity Trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which he or she is not entitled to vote.

- (b) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of those eligible to vote.
- (c) In the case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote.

 - who was disqualified from holding office;
 - who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
 - who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

if, without the vote of that Charity Trustee and that Charity Trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the Charity Trustees at a quorate meeting.

- (2) Sub-clause (1) of this clause does not permit a Charity Trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Charity Trustees or of a committee of Charity Trustees if, but for clause (1), the resolution would have been void, or if the Charity Trustee has not complied with clause 7 (Conflicts of interest).

21. Execution of documents

- (1) The CIO shall execute documents by signature or by affixing its seal (if it has one).

- (2) A document is validly executed by signature if it is signed by at least two of the Charity Trustees.

22. Use of electronic communications

The CIO will comply with the requirements of the Communications Provisions in the General Regulations and in particular:

- (b) any requirements to provide information to the Commission in a particular form or manner.

23. Keeping of Registers

The CIO must comply with its obligations under the General Regulations in relation to the keeping of, and provision of access to, registers of its Members and Charity Trustees.

24. Minutes

The Charity Trustees must keep minutes of all:
